7. POP! GOES THE WEASEL!

Round and round the cobbler's bench the monkey chased the weasel
The monkey thought 'twas all in fun
POP! goes the weasel!

A penny for a spool of thread, a penny for a needle
That's the way the money goes

POP! goes the weasel!

A half a pound of tuppenny rice, a half a pound of treacle
Mix it up and make it nice
POP! goes the weasel!

Up and down the London Road and in and out of The Eagle
That's the way the money goes
POP! goes the weasel!

I went to the grocery store, I thought a little cheese'll
Be good to catch a mouse on the floor
POP! goes the weasel!

But the mouse was very bright, he wasn't a mouse to wheedle
He took the cheese and said goodnight!
POP! goes the weasel!

A painter would his lover to paint, he stood before the easel
The monkey jumped all over the paint!
POP! goes the weasel!

When his sweetheart she did laugh his temper got so lethal
He tore the painting up in half!
POP! goes the weasel!

Every night when I go out the monkey's on the table
Take a stick and knock it off!
POP! goes the weasel!

Put some pepper on his nose and you'll make him sneeze
Catch it fast before it snaps
POP! goes the weasel!

Round and round the cobbler's bench the monkey chased the weasel
The monkey thought twas all in fun
POP! goes the weasel!

I've no time to wait and sigh, I've got no time to tease
Kiss me quick, I'm off, goodbye!
POP! goes the weasel!

8. I'VE BEEN WORKING ON THE RAILROAD

I've been working on the railroad all the livelong day!
I've been working on the railroad just to pass the time away!
Can't you hear the whistle blowing?
Rise up so early in the morn!
Can't you hear the captain shouting, "Dinah, blow your horn!"

Dinah, won't you blow? Dinah, won't you blow?
Dinah, won't you blow your horn?
Dinah, won't you blow? Dinah, won't you blow?
Dinah, won't you blow your horn?

Someone's in the kitchen with Dinah
Someone's in the kitchen, I know!
Someone's in the kitchen with Dinah
Strummin' on the old banjo

And we'll sing, "FEE, FI, FIDDLE-EE-I-O!
FEE, FI, FIDDLE-EE-I-O!
FEE, FI, FIDDLE-EE-I-O!
Strummin' on the old banjo!

I've been working on the railroad all the livelong day!
I've been working on the railroad just to pass the time away!
Can't you hear the whistle blowing?
Rise up so early in the morn!
Can't you hear the captain shouting, "Dinah, blow your horn!"

You get a line and I'll get a pole, honey!
You get a line and I'll get a pole, babe!
You get a line and I'll get a pole, we'll got fishin' down the crawdad hole!
Honey! Baby, mine!

Sitting on the bank till my feet get cold, honey!
Sitting on the bank till my feet get cold, babe!
Sitting on the bank till my feet get cold looking down that crawdad hole!
Honey! Baby, mine!

Yonder comes a man with a pack on his back, honey
Yonder comes a man with a pack on his back, babe Yonder comes a man with a pack on his back packing all the crawdads he can pack!
Honey! Baby, mine!

The man fell down and he broke that sack, honey
The man fell down and he broke that sac, babe
The man fell down and he broke that sack—see all the crawdads crawling back!
Honey! Baby, mine!

I'm standing on the corner with a dollar in my hand, honey
I'm standing on the corner with a dollar in my hand, babe
I'm standing on the corner with a dollar in my hand—standing there waiting for the crawdad man!
Honey! Baby, mine!

11. MY GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

My grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf so it stood ninety years on the floor
It was taller by half than the old man himself though it weighed not a pennyweight more
It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born
And was always his treasure and pride

But it stopped short never to go again when the old man died!

Refrain

Ninety years without slumbering, tick-tock, tick-tock

His life seconds numbering, tick-tock, tick-tock

It stopped short never to go again when the old man died

In watching its pendulum swing to and fro many hours had he spent while a boy

And in childhood and manhood the clock seemed to know and to share both his grief and his joy

For it struck twenty-four when he entered in the door

With a blooming and beautiful bride

But it stopped short never to go again when the old man died

(repeat Refrain)

My grandfather said that of those he could hire not a servant so faithful he found

For it wasted no time and had but one desire at the close of each week to be wound

And it kept on its face not a frown upon its face

And its hand never hung by its side

But it stopped short never to go again when the old man died

(repeat Refrain)

It rang an alarm in the dead of the night—an alarm that for years had been dumb

And we knew that his spirit was pluming his flight—that the hour of departure had come

But the clock kept the time with its soft and muffled chime

As we silently stood by his side

But it stopped short never to go again when the old man died

(repeat Refrain)

12. THREE BLIND MICE

Three blind mice

See how they run!

They all ran after the farmer's wife

Did you ever see such a sight in your life

As three blind mice?

13. THE FOX

The fox went out on a chilly night, prayed for the moon to give him light
He had many a mile to go that night before he reached the town-O!

He ran til he came to a great big bin, the ducks and the geese were kept therein
And he said, "A couple of you are gonna grease my chin before I leave this town-O!"

He grabbed the gray goose by the neck, he threwed a duck across his back
He didn't mind the quack quack quack, or the legs all dangling down-O!

Then old Mother Flipper-Flopper jumped out of bed, and out of the window
she stuck her head
She cried, "John, John, the gray goose is gone and the fox is on the town-O!"

Then John he went to the top of the hill, he blew his horn both loud and shrill
The fox, he said, "I better flee with my kill or they'll soon be on my trail-O!"

He ran til he came to his cozy den, and there were the little ones, eight, nine, ten,
Sayin' "Daddy, you better go back again, 'cause it must be a mighty fine
town-O!"

Well the fox and his wife, without any strife, they cut up the goose with a carving knife,
They never had such a supper in their life, and the little ones chewed on the bones-O!

14. HUSH LITTLE BABY

Hush, little baby, don't say a word,
Poppa's gonna buy you a mockingbird,
If that mockingbird don't sing,
Poppa's gonna buy you a diamond ring
If that ring is made of brass

Poppa's gonna buy you a looking glass
If that looking glass gets broke
Poppa's gonna buy you a billy goat
If that billy goat don't pull
Poppa's gonna buy you a cart and bull
If that cart and bull turn over
Poppa's gonna buy you a dog named Rover
If that dog named Rover don't bark
Poppa's gonna buy you a horse and cart
If that horse and cart fall down
You'll still be the sweetest little baby in town.

15. OH, SUSANNA!

Oh I come from Alabama with a banjo on my knee
Goin' to Louisiana, my Susanna for to see
Rained all night the day I left, the weather it was dry
Sun so hot I froze to death, Susanna don't you cry!

Oh Susanna, oh don't you cry for me,
Cause I come from Alabama with a banjo on my knee!

I had a dream the other night, when everything was still

A red red rose was in her hand, tear was in her eye,

Oh, how absurd to swallow a bird!

I know an old lady who swallowed a cat
Imagine that! To swallow a cat!

I know an old lady who swallowed a dog
What a hog! To swallow a dog!

I know an old lady who swallowed a goat
Opened her throat, and down walked the goat!

I know an old lady who swallowed a cow

I know an old lady who swallowed a horse
She's dead, of course!!

Nickety, nackety retrical quality
Willaby, wallaby-mo-mo-mo!

She combed her hair but once a year
Risseldy, rosseldy-mo-mo-mo!
With every rake she shed a tear
(repeat Refrain)

She swept the floor but once a year
Risseldy, rosseldy-mo-mo-mo!
She swore her broom was much too dear!
(Repeat Refrain)

She churned her butter in Dad's old boot

Risseldy, rosseldy-mo-mo-mo!
And for a dasher used her foot
(repeat Refrain)

The butter came out a grisly gray
Risseldy, rosseldy-mo-mo-mo!
The cheese took legs and ran away
(repeat Refrain)

Who lives on Drury Lane

Now we all know the Muffin Man
Who lives on Drury Lane.

Would you like to know the Muffin Man?
He lives on Drury Lane?

20. CLEMENTINE

In a cavern in a canyon, excavating for a mine
Dwelt a miner, forty-nine, and his daughter Clementine.
Light she was and like a fairy, and her shoes were number nine
Herring boxes without topses, sandals were for Clementine

Refrain

Oh my darlin', oh my darlin', oh my darlin' Clementine,
You are lost and gone forever, dreadful sorry Clementine.

Drove she ducklings to the water every morning just at nine,

Hit her foot against a splinter, fell into the foamy brine.
Ruby lips above the water, blowing bubbles soft and fine
But alas, I was no swimmer, so I lost my Clementine.
(repeat Refrain)

Then the mine, forty-niner, soon began to peak and pine,
Thought he oughta join his daughter, now he's with his Clementine
(repeat Refrain)

In my dreams she still doth haunt me, broken garments soaked in brine,
Though in life I used to hug her, now she's dead, I draw the line.

Here's to the pears and the apple trees
And here's to the lovely strawberries
Ding dang dong go the wedding bells

Said, 'Missy Mousie, are you within?' uh-huh
'Ah yes, kind sir, I sit and spin.'

Well he took Missy Mousie on his knee, uh-huh
And he said, 'Missy Mousie, will you marry me?'

'Well, without my Uncle Rat's consent,' uh-huh

The weasel wrote the publishment.

Where will the wedding supper be? uh-huh
Way down yonder in a holler tree.

What will the wedding supper be? uh-huh
Fried mosquiter and a black-eyed bee.

The first guest in was a bumbly-bee, uh-huh
He danced a jig with a crooked back flea.

The next guest in was a little black tic, uh-huh
And he ate so much he made himself sick.

They all went sailin' across the lake, uh-huh

Little piece o' cornbread sittin' on the shelf, uh-huh
If you want any more, better sing it yourself.
